

Missouri Association of School Librarians PODCAST & WEBINAR SERIES

Coming to MASL Members in 2019

RELATED INFORMATION

MONTHLY WEBINAR SERIES

“Related Information” is a webinar series Missouri school librarians are sure to be able to relate to. Each month MASL will host an evening webinar regarding current, relevant issues you will use to keep your library fresh and essential. Join in the discussion with questions of your own as this series kicks off with AASL President Kathryn Roots Lewis and YOU discussing the new AASL Standards.

AASL STANDARDS FEATURING KATHRYN ROOTS LEWIS

JANUARY 16, 2019, 7:00 P.M. - Register at www.bit.ly/MASLWebinar

January’s webinar will be held live and later available for download on the MASL website.

All following webinars will be uploaded directly to the MASL website.

BI-MONTHLY PODCAST SERIES

CHECKED IN

CHECKED IN A MASL PODCAST

“Checked In” is a school library podcast sponsored by MASL and hosted by Missouri school librarians. This bi-monthly show discusses issues and trends within school libraries with fresh perspectives from librarians working all over the state. Whether it’s genrefying a collection, creating makerspace areas in your library, or building relationships with classroom teachers, if it has to do with school libraries we’re talking about it on Checked In!

BEGINNING JANUARY 7, 2019

PODCAST EPISODES WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR DOWNLOAD AT MASLONLINE.ORG